Report of Independent Auditors

To the Board of Directors of Medical Professional Mutual Insurance Company

We have audited the accompanying statutory statements of admitted assets, liabilities and accumulated surplus of Medical Professional Mutual Insurance Company (the "Company") as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the related statutory statements of income and accumulated surplus and of cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described more fully in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Company prepares these financial statements using accounting practices prescribed or permitted by The Division of Insurance of The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which practices differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The effects on the financial statements of the variances between the statutory basis of accounting and accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America are material; they are described in Note 2.

In our opinion, because of the effects of the matter discussed in the preceding paragraph, the financial statements referred to above do not present fairly, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, or the results of its operations or its cash flows for the years then ended.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the admitted assets, liabilities and accumulated surplus of the Company as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 2.

PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic statutory basis financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying Supplemental Summary Investment Schedule, Supplemental Investment Risks Interrogatories, General Interrogatories, and Reinsurance Summary Supplemental Filing of the Company as of December 31, 2006, and for the year then ended are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic statutory basis financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic statutory basis financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic statutory basis financial statements taken as a whole.

1. Business

Medical Professional Mutual Insurance Company ("ProMutual" or the "Company") is the largest writer of medical malpractice insurance in The Commonwealth of Massachusetts. 100% of the direct premiums written in 2006 and 2005 were from risks located in The Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Company has a 100% interest in ProMutual Group, Inc. ProSelect Insurance Company ("ProSelect"), ProSelect National Insurance Company, Inc. ("ProSelect National") and ProMutual Insurance Agency, Inc. are wholly-owned subsidiaries of ProMutual Group, Inc. ProSelect is currently writing business in seven of the nine mid-Atlantic and New England states in which it is licensed. ProSelect National is licensed in twenty-seven states, but is not currently insuring risks.

2. Basis of Presentation and Significant Accounting Policies

Statutory Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared on a statutory basis of accounting in accordance with accounting practices prescribed or permitted by The Division of Insurance of The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Statutory accounting practices include a variety of publications of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners ("NAIC") as well as state laws, regulations and general administrative rules. Statutory accounting practices differ in some respects from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Significant differences include:

(a) Statutory accounting requires that policy acquisition costs (principally commissions and premium taxes) be charged to operations when incurred, and ceding commission received on reinsurance agreements not in excess of the acquisition costs of the business ceded be recorded as income when written. Under GAAP, these items would be deferred and then recognized ratably over the policy period.

(b) Under statutory accounting, certain assets designated as "nonadmitted assets" (principally premiums over three months past due, application software, prepaid expenses and office furniture and equipment) are charged directly to accumulated surplus. Under GAAP, the Company would maintain a reserve for doubtful accounts based upon estimated collectibility, recognize an asset on the balance sheet for prepaid expenses and office furniture and equipment and software would be recognized at net depreciated cost.

(c) Ceded reinsurance balances relating to unpaid loss and loss adjustment expenses are presented as offsets to reserves; under GAAP, such amounts would be presented as reinsurance recoverable; moreover, under statutory accounting, a provision for reinsurance is established for unsecured recoverable balances from reinsurers which are not authorized and for overdue paid loss recoverables.

(in thousands)

(d) Statutory accounting requires that certain debt securities be stated at amortized cost. Bonds with ratings of three or lower are stated at the lower of amortized cost or NAIC market value. Under GAAP, debt securities are classified as trading or available for sale, which are valued at fair value, or as held to maturity and valued at amortized cost.

(e) Under statutory accounting, classification of certain items on the statement of cash flows differs from GAAP. A reconciliation of indirect cash flows is not presented in the statutory basis cash flow statement, but would be required under GAAP.

(f) Under statutory accounting, majority owned insurance and noninsurance subsidiaries are not consolidated. Under GAAP, such subsidiaries would be consolidated.

(g) The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method. Deferred federal income taxes are generally recognized when assets and liabilities have different values for financial statement carrying amounts and their respective tax bases. However, the realization on any resulting deferred tax asset is subject to certain criteria in accordance with SSAP 10, Income Taxes.

The following is a reconciliation of policyholders' surplus on a statutory basis to policyholders' surplus presented on a GAAP basis for the Company:

	2006	2005
Policyholders' surplus, statutory basis	$ 504,690	$ 410,210
Valuation adjustments on investments	(6,552)	(10,907)
Deferred policy acquisition costs	19,949	21,607
Deferred federal income taxes	33,693	46,518
Other, net	2,367	2,219
Nonadmitted assets	3,667	4,524
Provision for reinsurance	-	1,639
Policyholders' surplus, GAAP	$ 557,814	$ 475,810

The net income for the Company determined in accordance with GAAP for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 was $63,934 and $94,984, respectively.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements
The preparation of financial statements in conformity with statutory accounting practices requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(in thousands)

Cash and Short-Term Investments
For financial statement purposes, the Company considers all cash and investments with maturities of less than one year at the time of their acquisition to be cash and short-term investments. Short-term investments, consisting primarily of money market funds, are stated at cost, which approximates fair value.

The Company invests its excess short-term funds in repurchase agreements with reputable third party financial institututions. Funds are debited from the Company's account on a nightly basis, earn a predetermined rate of interest, and are redeposited in full the following business day. The funds are fully collateralized, as required by the Company's policy, by bank-owned government agency securities.

Investments
The Company employed New England Asset Management, Inc., Wellington Management Co., L.L.P., Advent Capital Management, L.L.C., and NISA Investment Advisors L.L.C. to furnish investment management services. These investment fund managers, subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors, direct the investments of the Company in accordance with established investment objectives, policies and limitations. For their services under their respective contracts, the fund managers receive a monthly management fee calculated based on market values. During 2006 and 2005, the Company incurred aggregate management fees of approximately $2,049 and $1,993, respectively.

Valuation of investments is determined in accordance with the requirements, methods and values adopted by the NAIC, which provide that bonds, so qualified, be carried at amortized cost, preferred stock, so qualified, be carried at cost and other preferred and common stocks and other bonds at fair values established by the NAIC. The Company has elected to use the retrospective adjustment method on loan-backed securities. The Company uses the scientific method for amortizing its debt securities.

The Company values its investment in its subsidiary pursuant to the equity method using audited GAAP equity adjusted for statutory requirements, as is required under the rules promulgated by the NAIC.

Realized capital gains and losses on the sale of investments are included in net income and are determined on a specific identification basis. Where declines in securities' values are deemed other than temporary, the securities are reported at market value and the loss is reported as a component of net realized gains (losses). Unrealized capital gains and losses from the valuation of nonqualified bonds and equity investments at market are credited or charged directly to accumulated surplus.

The Company participates in a securities lending program to maximize investment income. Certain investment securities are exchanged for collateral, consisting of cash or U.S. Government securities, equal to at least 102% of the fair value of the investment securities on loan. The fair value of the loaned investment securities is monitored on a daily basis, with additional collateral obtained or refunded as the fair value of the loaned investment securities fluctuates. The collateral is retained and invested by a custodian to generate additional investment income.

Reinsurance
In the normal course of business, the Company seeks to reduce the losses that cause unfavorable underwriting results by reinsuring certain levels of risk in various areas of exposure with other insurance enterprises or reinsurers. Amounts recoverable from reinsurers are estimated in a manner consistent with the associated claim liabilities.

(in thousands)

Premiums Earned and Unearned
Premiums are recorded as earned on a daily pro rata basis over the terms of the policies. Unearned premiums represent the portion of premiums written applicable to the unexpired terms of the policies in force. A statutory premium deficiency reserve relating to insurance contracts is recognized if the sum of the expected loss and loss adjustment expenses, dividends to policyholders, and maintenance costs exceed the related unearned premiums. The Company anticipates investment income in determining the need for a premium deficiency reserve.

Loss and Loss Adjustment Expense Reserves
Liabilities for losses and loss adjustment expenses represent the estimated ultimate net cost of all unpaid reported and unreported claims. These estimates are continuously reviewed and modified to reflect current conditions and any adjustments are reflected in current operating results. The Company anticipates salvage and subrogation in recording its loss and loss adjustment expense reserves. The Company does not discount its loss and loss adjustment expense reserves (Note 5).

Depreciation
The provision for depreciation on electronic data processing equipment is computed on the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives of three years.

3. Investments

Total stocks	$ 194,026	$ 35,006	$ (9,568)	$ 219,464

Other investments represent amounts invested in a LLC, accounted for under the cost method.

The amortized cost and NAIC market value of debt securities at December 31, 2006, by contractual maturity, are shown below. Expected maturities will differ from contractual maturities because borrowers may have the right to call or prepay obligations with or without call or prepayment penalties.

	2006
	Amortized Cost	NAIC Market Value
Due in one year or less	$ 16,989	$ 16,967
Due after one year through five years	185,500	186,225
Due after five years through ten years	254,500	251,429
Due after ten years	358,006	360,892
Asset-backed securities	777,393	768,363
	$ 1,592,388	$ 1,583,876

At December 31, 2006 and 2005, the Company held investments in certain bonds with an NAIC rating of 3 or lower. This resulted in a $708 and $675 reduction to the investment balance at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively, which was reflected as an unrealized loss for statutory reporting purposes. Additionally $178 was recorded as unrealized gains on Treasury inflation-protected securities in 2006.

(in thousands)

Management believes that the gross unrealized losses reflected on ProMutual's fixed income portfolio as of December 31, 2006 were primarily the result of increases in market interest rates from the time of acquisition to the current period. These decreases in value are viewed as being temporary as ProMutual has the intent and ability to retain such investments for a period of time sufficient to allow for any anticipated recovery in market value. The majority of the debt securities that are in an unrealized loss position are highly rated by the Securities Valuation Office (SVO) of the NAIC and are therefore not required to be written down under NAIC guidelines. An unrealized loss on equity securities of $2,438 relates to a wholly-owned subsidiary, for which management has the ability and intent to hold for sufficient recovery. Management also believes that the remaining gross unrealized losses recorded on ProMutual's domestic equity portfolio as of December 31, 2006 were primarily the result of routine fluctuations in market prices as opposed to the issuer's financial condition. Therefore, these decreases in value are also viewed as being temporary. In compliance with statutory regulations, the Company obtains its market prices and NAIC designations from the SVO of the NAIC. All statutory unrealized losses have a direct impact on the Company's policyholders' surplus.

Proceeds from the sale of investments during 2006 and 2005 were $848,219 and $538,123, respectively. Gross gains of $14,142 and $10,477 and gross losses of $16,643 and $7,992 were realized on sales of debt securities during 2006 and 2005, respectively. Gross gains of $13,509 and $6,596 and gross losses of $3,809 and $5,407 were realized on sales of equity securities during 2006 and 2005, respectively. The calculation of the gain or loss on the sale of marketable securities is based on specific identification at the time of sale. In addition, the Company realized no losses in 2006 and 2005 due to other than temporary declines in securities' market value.

	$ 85,976	$ 71,970

The Company participates in a securities lending program where they loan certain investment securities in exchange for collateral, consisting of cash or U.S. Government securities, equal to at least 102% of the fair value of the investment securities on loan. As of December 31, 2006 and 2005, investment securities with a fair value of $256,485 and $346,144, respectively, were on loan. Investment income earned on securities lending transactions for 2006 and 2005 was $280 and $306, respectively.

Tax effect of unrealized gains (losses)			8,547
Change in net deferred income tax			$ (7,948)

In accordance with SSAP 10, the Company has nonadmitted that portion of the deferred tax asset that is not expected to be realized in the next year.

(in thousands)

The provision for federal and foreign income taxes incurred is different from that which would be obtained by applying the statutory federal income tax rate to income before taxes. The significant items causing this difference are as follows:

	2006	Effective Tax Rate
Provision computed at statutory rate	$ 33,461	35.0%
Tax-exempt income deduction	(443)	(0.4%)
Dividends received deduction	(1,785)	(1.9%)
Other	569	0.6%
	$ 31,802	33.3%
Federal and foreign income taxes incurred	$ 23,854	25.0%
Change in net deferred income taxes	7,948	8.3%
Total statutory income taxes	$ 31,802	33.3%

At December 31, 2006, the Company did not have any unused loss carryforwards available to offset future taxable income.

The Company has $21,637 and $10,601 income taxes incurred in the current or prior years, respectively, that are available for recoupment in the event of future net losses.

The Company files a consolidated federal income tax return with its subsidiaries, which include ProSelect Insurance Company, ProSelect National Insurance Company, Inc., ProMutual Group, Inc., and ProMutual Insurance Agency, Inc.

The method of allocation between the Companies is subject to written agreement, approved by the Board of Directors. The consolidated tax liability is allocated to the Member Companies in accordance with Reg. Section 1.1502-33(d)(2)(ii) in conjunction with the method provided by Reg. Section 1.1552-1(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code whereby the tax is computed on an "as if separate return" basis. Intercompany tax balances are settled annually.

5. Loss and Loss Adjustment Expense Reserves

The loss and loss adjustment expense reserves at December 31, 2006 and 2005 consisted of the following:

	2006	2005
Reported claims
Losses	$ 542,259	$ 511,138
Loss adjustment expenses	514	802
	542,773	511,940
Claims incurred but not yet reported
Losses	459,335	415,978
Loss adjustment expenses	324,031	306,856
	783,366	722,834
Loss and loss adjustment expense reserves	$ 1,326,139	$ 1,234,774

The activity in the liability for unpaid loss and loss adjustment expenses is summarized as follows:

	2006	2005
Balance at January 1	$ 1,234,774	$ 1,072,531
Payments made on claims existing at January 1	(173,472)	(116,082)
Decrease in liability on claims existing at January 1	(49,236)	(26,814)
Balance at December 31 on prior year claims	1,012,066	929,635
Estimated losses on new claims	319,421	309,176
Payments made on new claims	(5,348)	(4,037)
Balance at December 31 on current year claims	314,073	305,139
Total loss and loss adjustment expense reserves at December 31	$ 1,326,139	$ 1,234,774

These liabilities include estimates of expected trends in claim severity, frequency and other factors which could vary as the claims are ultimately settled. In establishing the reserve for losses and loss adjustment expenses, the Company has relied upon its independent actuaries to review the reasonableness of management's best estimates. These recommendations are based principally upon the historical experience of the Company in writing medical malpractice insurance. As a result of changes in estimates of insured events in prior years, the liability on claims existing at January 1, 2006 and 2005, respectively, decreased $49,236 and $26,814 for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively, primarily related to coverage years 2002 through 2004 predominantly in the physicians and surgeons line of business.

(in thousands)

Claims in the medical malpractice line of insurance have traditionally been characterized by delayed discovery and reporting and, in many cases, the final payment of claims is dependent upon the outcome of litigation. As a result, the total of claims paid from the premiums earned in any policy year will not be known for many years.

6. Leases

The Company occupies office facilities under an operating lease agreement which expires on February 29, 2016. Total rent expense was $1,557 and $1,523 for 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Minimum annual rental commitments as of December 31, 2006 under the operating lease are as follows:

Fiscal Year
2007	$ 1,509
2008	1,556
2009	1,604
2010	1,651
2011	1,698
Thereafter	7,584

7. Nonadmitted Assets

Certain assets, designated as nonadmitted by The Division of Insurance of The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, were directly charged to accumulated surplus as follows:

	2006	2005
Premiums receivable over three months due	$ 44	$ 120
Funds held by reinsured companies	34	34
Nonadmitted deferred income tax	39,118	51,748
Equipment, furniture and application software	2,334	2,750
Accounts receivable	21	20
Prepaid expenses and deposits	1,235	965
	$ 42,786	$ 55,637

(in thousands)

8. EDP Equipment

EDP equipment at December 31, 2006 and 2005 consisted of the following:

	2006	2005
EDP equipment	$ 1,873	$ 1,388
Less: Accumulated depreciation	(1,264)	(922)
	$ 609	$ 466

Depreciation expense was $342 and $346 during 2006 and 2005, respectively.

9. Employee Benefit Plans

The Company's employees are covered by a qualified defined contribution pension plan sponsored by the Company. A contribution was made in 2006 in the amount of $581 for 2005 that was based on each employee's age and average salary over the most recent five years to meet a target benefit. A contribution of approximately $625 will be made for 2006 in 2007.

The Company sponsors a 401k Employee Savings Plan. Substantially all employees of the Company are eligible to participate in the Company's Employee Savings Plan under which a portion of employee contributions are matched by the Company. The match by the Company was $520 and $485 in 2006 and 2005, respectively.

The Company's executives and members of the Board of Directors are also eligible to participate in a deferred compensation plan.

10. Dividends to Policyholders

On June 1, 2005, the Board of Directors voted to pay a dividend of $3,200 related to the experience of the dental line of business for calendar years 1986 through 1997 allocated to dentists based on their respective premiums earned by the Company during the period. The dividends were paid in October 2005.

On June 7, 2006, the Board of Directors voted to pay a dividend of $1,900 related to the experience of the dental line of business for calendar years 1986 through 1999 allocated to dentists based on their respective premiums earned by the Company during the period. The dividends were paid in November and December 2006.

11. Reinsurance

Reinsurance is obtained to reduce exposure to large claims. Such ceded reinsurance includes quota share and excess of loss contracts on all lines of insurance. These reinsurance contracts do not relieve the Company from its obligations to policyholders. Failure of reinsurers to honor their obligations could result in losses to the Company.

(in thousands)

The Company and ProSelect purchased an excess of loss agreement in 2005 and 2006, providing coverage of 90% and 95%, respectively, of $8 million in excess of $2 million. The principal reinsurers for this contract are Axa Re, Platinum Underwriters Reinsurance, Inc., Max Re Ltd. and Transatlantic Reinsurance Company.

The Company participates in the Massachusetts Medical Malpractice Reinsurance Plan (MMMRP), a residual market pool. The Company as well as other insurance companies, cede policies into the pool on a facultative basis. The MMMRP assesses each participant an amount based on the profitability of the pool and its respective market share by policy year.

As of December 31, 2006 and 2005, a provision for reinsurance has been established in the amounts of $0 and $553, respectively, for unsecured recoverables from unauthorized reinsurers. Irrespective of the protection afforded against claim exposure by the above reinsurance agreements, the Company remains liable as the direct insurer to the insured.

The amounts by which unearned premiums, loss reserves, loss adjustment expense reserves, premiums earned and loss and loss adjustment expenses incurred have been decreased for amounts ceded to unaffiliated reinsurers are as follows:

	2006	2005
Unearned premiums	$ 3,944	$ 5,796
Loss reserves	115,089	105,249
Loss adjustment expense reserves	31,869	28,670
Premiums earned	6,655	7,372
Loss and loss adjustment expenses incurred	17,565	10,205
Commission equity	597	876

The effect of assumed reinsurance from unaffiliated insurers is as follows:

	2006	2005
Unearned premiums	$ -	$ -
Loss reserves	67,355	50,008
Loss adjustment expense reserves	19,132	12,448
Premiums earned	11,782	9,228
Loss and loss adjustment expenses incurred	27,868	20,931
Commission equity	-	-

The Company has a quota share reinsurance agreement with ProSelect which was increased to 100% from 90% effective January 1, 2005. A portfolio transfer was effected January 1, 2005 whereby premium of $7,398 and losses and loss adjustment expenses of $33,565 were paid by ProSelect to the Company. Under this agreement, the Company assumes 100% of the ProSelect current and prior net liabilities under all insurance business written. In turn, ProSelect pays the Company 100% of the premiums received on all direct insurance business written by ProSelect after deducting return premiums payable, reinsurance, and 100% of the net underwriting and claims expense. The terms of the agreement are automatically extended for additional one-year terms. This agreement may be terminated at any time a) by the mutual written consent of the parties or, b) by either party upon 60 days' prior written notice. The amounts assumed under this treaty are as follows:

(in thousands)

	2006	2005
Unearned premiums	$ 94,494	$ 92,195
Premiums earned	183,456	170,059
Loss reserves	375,861	320,474
Loss adjustment expense reserves	146,359	139,557
Loss and loss adjustment expenses incurred	121,361	163,717

12. Commitments and Contingencies

Various legal claims arise from time to time in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, these claims should not result in judgments or settlements which, in the aggregate, would have a material effect on the Company's results of operations or financial condition.

13. Related Parties

Total assets of the Company include net receivables from ProMutual Group, Inc., ProSelect, ProSelect National and ProMutual Insurance Agency, Inc. of $2,353 and $14,307 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. ProSelect had assets of $79,727 and $90,630, and liabilities of $61,373 and $73,683 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. ProSelect National had assets of $11,183 and $10,916, and liabilities of $13 and $6 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

The Company has an Administration and Management Services Agreement (the "Agreement") with ProSelect. Under this agreement, ProMutual agrees to provide various services in connection with the underwriting and management of ProSelect. These include underwriting, policy issuance, billing and premium collection, claims handling, policy administration, actuarial, risk management, investment advisory and all general administrative services relating to the business of ProSelect. ProSelect and the Company further agree that, subject to certain limitations set forth in the Agreement, the Company shall be the sole and exclusive provider of these services and that ProSelect shall not accept applications for insurance except through the Company.

The terms of the agreement are automatically extended for additional one-year terms. The agreement may be terminated at any time (a) by the mutual written consent of the parties or (b) by either party on sixty days prior written notice. Management fees for these services are paid based on a formula calculated on a pro rata basis of the direct premium written, direct losses paid, change in direct case loss reserves and direct paid allocated loss adjustment expense, as set out in the Agreement. The management fee was $14,940 and $13,488 for 2006 and 2005, respectively. The Company has a receivable at year-end attributable to unsettled balances under this agreement.

14. Reconciliation to Statutory Annual Statement

Certain items in this report differ from corresponding items reflected in the statutory annual statement, and are presented in the table below. The differences are due to the fact that the Company's accounting treatment for the Massachusetts Medical Malpractice Reinsurance Plan (MMMRP) reflected management's best estimate of anticipated assessments in accordance with SSAP No. 35, Guaranty Fund and Other Assessments. Additionally, the related reinsurance transactions were recorded on a gross basis in accordance with SSAP No. 63, Underwriting Pools and Associations Including Intercompany Pools. Upon further review of the MMMRP rules of operation, it was deemed to be more appropriate to use SSAP No. 63 alone. The decrease to net assets and net income of $7,753 at December 31, 2005 represents the after-tax impact of the net cumulative effect of the adjustments since inception of the MMMRP.

	2006	2005
Accumulated surplus as reported in the statutory annual statement	$ 504,690	$ 417,963
