29 August 2007

Office of Insurance Commission
State of Washington Hearings Unit
Attn: Wendy Galloway for
Patricia D Petersen,
Chief Hearing Officer
PO Box 40255
Olympia, WA 98504-0255
Fax 360*664-2782
WendyG@oic.wa.gov

Sent via email, fax and certified mail

Re: Case # 07-0369 False Advertising MetLife etc…[sic]

Dear Ms. Petersen,

I received a letter of reprimand from Marianne Azevedo, dated May 30, 2007, resulting from a complaint filed March 20, 2007 by a competing insurance agent here in Duvall. On June 21, 2007 I formally requested that the letter of reprimand be rescinded. I have tried to work with Ms. Azevedo's supervisor for nearly a month now, but to no avail. I am now requesting a hearing to challenge the reprimand.

Each of the statements in the reprimand is false. My agency did have the right to advertise as it did, and I have the appointments, contracts, letters, emails and applications that prove this. I also have the letter from InsuranceNoodle's compliance officer that was sent to Ms. Azevedo on June 13, 2007 proving that I was affiliated with them, contrary to the reprimand's claim. Ms. Azevedo and Mr. Huske have both ignored that letter.

Please let me know what the next step is, and how I may submit my documentation.

Thank you for your time,

Julie D Lemery
13117 291st Ave NE
Duvall, WA 98019
Ph 206*228-4200
Fx 425*788-6270