

USE OF REMOTE ONLINE NOTARY

The Office of the Insurance Commissioner will accept documents notarized via remote online notarization (RON). However, this method of notarization may only be performed by state authorized remote online notaries who employ audio/video means for identification and notarize documents using tamper-evident technologies. The notary stamp must also be a digital image that appears in the likeness or representation of a traditional notary stamp and indicates the notarization was performed via remote online methods.