Re: Annette Cabin

Spokane Insurance Commissioner
AUG 26 2009
Investigations & Enforcement

Dear Mr. Talarico:

I am in receipt of your letter of August 20, 2009. On behalf of my client, Annette Cabin, I hereby request that the next step in the administrative appeal process be taken. In other words, we would like a hearing and/or a meeting with your or the Insurance Commissioner to present our case.

To begin with, your letter to my client is inaccurate. She has not yet been convicted of a gross misdemeanor, as she has not been sentenced. That case is subject to dismissal on conditions. One of those conditions is continued cooperation with the Insurance commission. She has done so to date. This can be corroborated with Michael Bertrand of the Olympia office. It does not appear that her arrangement with the Olympia office has been taken into account.

Yours truly

Robert Goldsmith
Attorney for A. Cabin
