Yes. I didn't recall this one. I'm sorry. It was another. My fault.

Vickie:

This email came through as recalled by you and based on the below, I thought he withdrew the request. Is it to move forward with the request then?

My computer says you recalled a message with the same subject line. Is this it or was that another one?

Subject: Request for Hearing/Insurance License

I am requesting a hearing for review of my requested insurance license denial.

I am 65, have no retirement whatsoever, and am trying to return to work. Therefore I have gone through school, passed tests, applied with the State, and have been "hired" by Sterling Health. A denial (Original Resident Individual 128896) is a significant impact on any earnings for me and my family.

I feel confident that upon further verbal or in person explanation of a supposedly "false statement", which would certainly be of concern on face value, review will put it in proper perspective and result in granting of license.

Sincerely,

Bryan H. Robinson
