Dear Patricia,

This is Jeffrey Hollingsworth. I would like to demand a hearing and a stay. I just went through a very difficult divorce. Much of my mail never made it to me, my ex-wife was part of the company so she had access to all avenues of mail and information, including post office boxes. I am sorry I never responded to your inquiries, I never received your letters, or those from FINRA, and it is my belief that they were destroyed or withheld from me by my ex-wife. My attorney is currently helping me work on this and I am trying to get everything up to date the best I can.

Thank you for your time,

Jeff Hollingsworth
