RE: Demand for a Hearing

Dear Patricia D. Petersen,

I would like to demand a hearing pursuant to RCW 48.04.010. I disagree with the Insurance Commissioner's order revoking my license under Order No. 12-0023. The reasons for this disagreement are these:

1. There were no self-interested intentions behind my actions.
2. To further clarify the environment and events surrounding what transpired.
3. I have cooperated entirely in the investigation at every level and have shown no desire to hide/conceal what happened. I have been and continue to be accountable for my actions, but feel the punishment does not fit the crime.
4. I made a mistake, and deserve a second chance to show I have completely learned from my mistakes.

Sincerely,

Nathan J. Bochsler

Cairns, Kelly (OIC)

OFFICE OF
INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

In The Matter of

Nathan J. Bochsler,

Licensee.

ORDER NO. 12-0023
NPN 8306772
WAOIC 233844

ORDER REVOKING LICENSE

To: Nathan J. Bochsler
525 Belmont Avenue East # 9D
Seattle, WA 98102

IT IS ORDERED AND YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that your Washington State insurance producer license is REVOKED, effective February 18, 2012, pursuant to RCW 48.17.530, 48.30.210, and RCW 48.17.540(2).

THIS ORDER IS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING:

1. Nathan J. Bochsler holds a Washington resident insurance producer's license, WAOIC # 233844, issued November 16, 2004.

2. Between February and April 2010, Nathan J. Bochsler falsified documents and/or directed the falsification of documents in connection with the sale of an automobile insurance policy to consumers, while employed as an insurance producer with Allstate Insurance Company. Nathan J. Bochsler submitted an application for an automobile insurance policy in which he used his own personal consumer credit report and identified himself as being both the owner of the vehicle(s) to be insured and the individual requesting to be the named insured policyholder, in an effort to manipulate the premium rate for two consumers. Nathan J. Bochsler thereafter submitted a second application for an automobile insurance policy in which he used the personal consumer credit report of an employee in the insurance agency and identified the employee as being both the owner of the vehicle(s) to be insured and the individual requesting to be the named insured policyholder, in further effort to manipulate the premium rate for the same two consumers. Following approval of the second application, Nathan J. Bochsler transferred the policy into the name of the consumer(s).

3. Pursuant to RCW 48.17.530, the Commissioner may revoke the license of any insurance producer for intentionally misrepresenting the terms of an actual or proposed insurance contract or application for insurance [RCW 48.17.530(1)(e)]; or for using fraudulent, coercive, or dishonest practices, or demonstrating incompetence, untrustworthiness, or financial irresponsibility [RCW 48.17.530(1)(h)].

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that you return your insurance producer license certificate to the Commissioner on or before the effective date of the revocation of your license, as required by RCW 48.17.530(4). Return your license to: Licensing Manager, Office of the Insurance Commissioner, P O Box 40257, Olympia, WA 98504-0257.

ENTERED AT TUMWATER, WASHINGTON, this 31 day of January, 2012.

MIKE KREIDLER
Insurance Commissioner
