To whom it may concern:

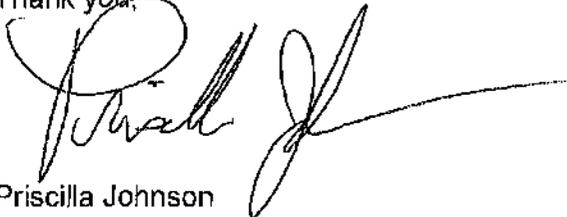

I am writing in response to the letter and order dated March 18, 2013 regarding the matter of Priscilla G. Johnson.

I am hereby demanding a hearing per my rights under RCW 48.04.010 under the following grounds:

- The supporting information relied upon to come to the conclusions on this order are categorically false
 - The order states that "EH gave hundreds of quotes and sold about five insurance policies while working without a license for Johnson". This information is simply not true or accurate.
- My reputation of and that my business practices have always been held at the highest level and the grounds of this order suggest otherwise.
 - The reputation and practices of EH are distinctly opposite and are what ultimately led to his departure from my office.

I look forward to discussing this matter with the Commissioner and clearing this misunderstanding up.

Thank you,

Priscilla Johnson

ORDER REVOKING LICENSE

To: Priscilla G. Johnson and Priscilla G. Johnson
5395 N. Entrada De Sabino 6340 N. Campbell Avenue, Suite 140
Tucson, Arizona 85750 Tucson, Arizona 85718

IT IS ORDERED AND YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that your Washington State insurance producer license is REVOKED, effective March 18, 2013, pursuant to RCW 48.17.530 and RCW 48.17.540(2).

THIS ORDER IS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING:

Priscilla G. Johnson ("Johnson") was licensed in Washington as a resident agent and producer from 1999 until she cancelled her producer license on December 5, 2012. She was appointed by Farmers Insurance in 2007.

Aspiring producer EH worked in Johnson's insurance office from early September 2011 until December 5, 2012. Immediately after EH passed the Washington State insurance examination on September 23, 2011, but before he had completed the licensure process, Johnson provided EH with Farmers Insurance business cards that identified him as an "agency producer," and put him to work. Johnson confirmed to EH that as soon as he passed his exam, he could begin working as a producer.

A prospective insured was referred to EH by her real estate agent. EH's hesitancy and inability to answer questions aroused her suspicions, even though EH told her that he was in fact licensed. The prospective insured checked his licensure status with the Office of the Insurance Commissioner and found that he was not licensed, and so informed EH. EH took immediate steps and was licensed on November 18, 2011. EH gave hundreds of quotes and sold about five insurance policies while working without a license for Johnson, although Johnson signed the paperwork and did not share any commissions with him. He left Johnson's agency on December 5, 2011.

Applicable Law:

RCW 48.17.530(1) provides that the Commissioner may place on probation, suspend, revoke, or refuse to issue or renew an insurance producer's license or may levy a civil penalty in accordance with RCW 48.17.560 or any combination of actions, for:

- (1) Knowingly accepting insurance business from a person who is required to be licensed and is not so licensed;

RCW 48.17.560 provides that in addition to or in lieu of the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew any such license, the Commissioner may levy a fine upon the licensee in an amount of not more than $1,000 per violation.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to RCW 48.17.560 you pay a fine in the amount of $1,000.00 (One Thousand Dollars) within 30 days of the effective date of this Order. Please make your check payable to the Office of the Insurance Commissioner and mail to Delia Zebroski, Fiscal Analyst, Operations Division, PO Box 40255, Olympia, Washington 98504-0255 or deliver to 5000 Capitol Blvd., Tumwater, WA 98501.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, if you have not already done so, you return your insurance producer license certificate to the Commissioner on or before the effective date of the revocation of your license, as required by RCW 48.17.530(4). Return your license to: Licensing Manager, Office of the Insurance Commissioner, P O Box 40257, Olympia, WA 98504-0257.

ENTERED AT TUMWATER, WASHINGTON, this 28th day of February, 2013.

MIKE KREIDLER
Insurance Commissioner
