On September 9, 2013, the Insurance Commissioner ("OIC") sent a letter by electronic mail to Jill Milani informing her that her application for a Letter of Written Consent to Engage in the Business of Insurance had been denied. As evidenced in the OIC's letter, the OIC based its denial on the fact that Ms. Milani has had a felony conviction involving theft, fraud, embezzlement or mishandling of funds within the past ten years. In response, Ms. Milani submitted a request for hearing on September 10, 2013. Ms. Milani states that she would like to present her case to show she is moving forward to develop a positive life for herself and that she is willing to initially be licensed on a probationary basis.
