HEARING PROCEDURES - OFFICE OF THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

The following is a brief summary of hearing procedure. Following the prehearing conference referred to above, a Notice of Hearing will be entered advising you of the date scheduled for the hearing. The specific rules which govern the hearing procedure, which include many more details, can be found primarily at Chapter 34.05 RCW (the Administrative Procedure Act) and Chapter 10-08 WAC. Your hearing will be presided over by the Chief Presiding Officer. It will be conducted in a fairly formal manner; however, pursuant to the mandate of the Administrative Procedure Act it will be as flexible as possible to accommodate the needs of the parties and any witnesses which may appear. You will be allowed to submit documents to support your version of the facts. Testimony may also be presented in the form of live witnesses, including the parties themselves; also, if requested, witnesses are allowed to testify over the telephone at the discretion of the Chief Presiding Officer.

The hearing is normally conducted in three parts. First, each party presents an opening statement summarizing what they intend to prove. Second, each party presents its case-in-chief, which includes presentation of documents and testimony, subject to cross examination by the opposing party. Third, the hearing concludes with each party presenting closing arguments summarizing what they believe they have proven factually and how those facts apply to the subject statutes and/or regulations.

The Chief Presiding Officer is an individual who has not had any involvement with this case. The Chief Presiding Officer is responsible for all stages of this administrative proceeding before, during and after the hearing, and will conduct the case and make the final decision without any communication, input or review by the Insurance Commissioner or staff or any other individual who has knowledge of the case. The Chief Presiding Officer's final decision is appealable only to the Superior Court and not to another administrative official or tribunal.
