My mailing address really is 18226 se 244th place. However, when my husband moved out, which I learned months later, he put in for a change of address with just "gamble" so mail was just well... Not delivered. I will go to the postmaster and ask for a letter from her as it was last August or July that Travelers contacted me as they had returned mail.

The postmaster listened to me and called me back the next day and said she had spoke with the postman and he assumed the house was abandoned. I explained to her that I travel (at that time) a lot, and going through a very, very hostile separation.

She deeply apologized and reaffirmed the postman was out of line, she understood my anger and that they are not there to "assume".

Although I am going through a short sale, the address you have is the right one. Will you please try to resend what you are sending and I will call the Postmaster to reaffirm that mail addressed to me or my son is indeed being delivered.

Yes, absolutely. When this dealer called me and informed me of the document he saw online "my license being revoked" I was shocked. To start, I surrendered my license months ago, how can it be revoked when I surrendered it. Also, I transferred this book of business. Mainly, BECAUSE OIC would not demand payment history from WSIADA, (this is why I am requesting the recording of the meeting I had with oic)

After that meeting, communication was intermittent at best. They did not contact (this is NOT to be accusatory, I was, and am, going through a very, very difficult divorce. Picture high school well. Etc address changes being submitted, numbers being forwarded etc. Anyway).

Not providing the information I thought they were going to provide for me to even facilitate a response to the questions I didn't have an immediate answer Irony the to some EXCEPT: Todd with Shepard and Shepard told me Bob was trying to contact me I should reach out. That is when I found out my contact information was not working due to personal issues. (Email)However I did call Bob, informed him of the email address I can access. Todd (whom I transferred the business too and now regret) and Kurt, the person who started the complaints and was my replacement WSIADA cashed all money, yet once I resigned they also happened to be the complaining party. Yet since 1993 (I would hope my predecessor did not know) All bills, commissions etc were part of membership no one,except for the association, collected funds.

Ms. Gamble,

I am looking for just a little more clarification. The OIC records show that an Order Revoking License was issued, revoking your producer's license. Is that the document you are referring to? Is that the action that you are requesting a hearing for?

I would like a formal hearing. Everything and I mean everything that is in the document the dealer sent me is not only wrong however, contradicts everything during the hearing.

Please advise

Ms. Gamble,

Is your email below requesting a hearing with the OIC Hearings Unit? Under RCW 48.04.010 a person aggrieved by an act of the Commissioner may request a hearing to challenge the Commissioner's action by making a written demand (email is fine) specifying in what respects the person is aggrieved and the grounds for seeking relief. In the case of a written order by the commissioner (such as an Order Revoking License), the demand for hearing must be made within ninety days of the date the order was mailed. For more information about hearings, see our website at: <http://www.insurance.wa.gov/laws-rules/administrative-hearings/>

If you are requesting something other than a hearing, please clarify what it is you are looking for and I will be better able to forward your request to the right person in our agency.

I just received an email from a dealer concerned about what he stumbled upon. I read what he referred to and am shocked. I need guidance as to how to have this matter heard in court and how to get a copy of the interview I had with your representatives.

Please advise
