CONSUMER PROTECTION

I am hereby requesting a hearing to contest the order. I would like to explain the circumstances regarding the activities. Also, I'm the head of my household and can't afford to lose my license since I'm only the source for income right now. Please give me a chance to explain myself. Thank you.

Regards,

Sung H Kim

IT IS ORDERED AND YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that your license is REVOKED, effective October 23, 2008, pursuant to RCW 48.17.530 and 48.17.540(2).

THIS ORDER IS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING:

1. Sung H. Kim holds an insurance agent's license issued by the Washington State Insurance Commissioner.
2. In 2007, the licensee obtained automobile insurance for Washington residents, Chung and Kab Woo. In the process, licensee obtained the Woo's credit report and other personal information.
3. In December 2007, the Woo's left for a trip to Korea.
4. While the Woo's were gone and without their knowledge or consent, the licensee had the Woo's mail forwarded to a post office box in Federal Way, Washington, which licensee rented. The licensee then misappropriated the Woo's identity, opened credit card accounts in their names, and misappropriated funds from those accounts, all without the knowledge or consent of the Woo's.
5. By email to Mike Huske of the OIC dated July 27, 2008, the licensee admitted that he opened three credit card accounts with Mr. Woo's information and that he took money from those accounts.
6. RCW 48.17.530 provides that: (1) The Commissioner may suspend, revoke, or refuse to issue any license . . . for any cause specified in any other provision of this code, or for any of the following causes:

(e) If the licensee . . . has engaged in . . . any fraudulent transaction.

(h) If the licensee or applicant has shown himself to be, and is so deemed by the commissioner, incompetent, or untrustworthy, or a source of injury and loss to the public.

By reason of your conduct, you have shown yourself to be, and are so deemed by the commissioner, untrustworthy and a source of injury and loss to the public and not qualified to be an insurance agent in the State of Washington. Accordingly, your license is revoked pursuant to RCW 48.17.530(1) (e) and (h).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that you return your insurance agent's and agency license certificates to the Commissioner on or before the effective date of the revocation of your licenses, as required by RCW 48.17.530(4).

NOTICE CONCERNING YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING. Please note that a detailed summary of your right to contest this Order is attached. Briefly, if you are aggrieved by this Order, RCW 48.04.010 permits you to demand a hearing. Pursuant to that statute and others: You must demand a hearing, in writing, within 90 days after the date of this Order, which is the day it was mailed to you, or you will waive your right to a hearing. Your demand for a hearing must specify briefly the reasons why you think this Order should be changed. If your demand for a hearing is received by the Commissioner before the effective date of the revocation, then the revocation will be stayed (postponed) pending the hearing, pursuant to RCW 48.04.020. Upon receipt of your demand for hearing, you will be contacted by an assistant of the Chief Hearing Officer to schedule a teleconference with you and the Insurance Commissioner's Office to discuss the hearing and the procedures to be followed.

Please send any demand for hearing to Insurance Commissioner, attention John Hamje, Deputy Insurance Commissioner, Office of the Insurance Commissioner, P.O. Box 40257, Olympia, WA 98504-0257.

ENTERED AT TUMWATER, WASHINGTON, this 3rd day of October, 2008.

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING

You have the right to demand a hearing to contest this Order. During this hearing, you can present your argument that the Order should not have been entered for legal and/or factual reasons and/or to explain the circumstances surrounding the activities which are the subject of this Order. You may be represented by an attorney if you wish, although in some hearings before this agency parties do choose to represent themselves without an attorney.

Your Demand for Hearing should be sent to John F. Hamje, Deputy Insurance Commissioner, Office of the Insurance Commissioner, P.O. Box 40257, Olympia, WA 98504-0257, and must briefly state how you are harmed by this Order and why you disagree with it. You will then be notified both by telephone and in writing of the time and place of your hearing. If you have questions concerning filing a Demand for Hearing or the hearing process, please telephone the Hearings Unit, Office of the Insurance Commissioner, at 360/725-7002.

Your Demand for Hearing must be made within 90 days after the date of this Order, which is the date of mailing, or your Demand will be invalid and this Order will stand. If your Demand for Hearing is received before the effective date of this Order, the penalties contained in the Order will be stayed (postponed) until after your hearing.

It is important to know that if you demand a hearing, you will have two options for how it will be handled:

Option 1: Unless you specifically request Option 2, your hearing will be presided over by an administrative law judge from the Office of the Insurance Commissioner. Under this option, upon receipt of your Demand for Hearing, the Insurance Commissioner may refer the case to an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge is an individual who has not had any involvement with this case. The administrative law judge will hear and make the final decision in the case without any communication, input or review by the Insurance Commissioner or staff or any other individual who has knowledge of the case. This administrative law judge's final decision may uphold or reverse the Commissioner's action or may instead impose any penalties which are less than those contained in the Order.

Option 2: If you elect, your hearing will be presided over by an administrative law judge from the Office of Administrative Hearings. That administrative law judge will issue an initial or recommended decision which will then be sent to the Insurance Commissioner. The Insurance Commissioner, or his designee, will review the initial decision and make the final decision. The Insurance Commissioner's final decision in the case may uphold, reverse or modify the initial decision, thereby changing the penalty which is recommended in the initial decision. In writing the final decision, the Insurance Commissioner is not bound by the findings of facts or conclusions of law which were made in the initial decision.
