2026 individual market health plans

In 2019, the Washington state Legislature passed Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill \(ESSB\) 5526, which increased the availability of quality, affordable health coverage in the individual market. That legislation requires the Office of the Insurance Commissioner (OIC) to report annually on the number of individual health plans approved for sale in each county. This includes plans both on and off the Washington State Health Benefit Exchange.¹ This is the seventh report fulfilling that directive.

Availability of coverage

For plan year (PY) 2026, every county will have at least one insurer offering health plans for sale in Washington State's individual market. Plans are available in gold, silver, bronze and catastrophic tiers.

Insurers are not required to offer coverage in specific counties or statewide and may opt to sell on the Washington State Health Benefit Exchange (the Exchange), off the Exchange or both. In addition, if an insurer offers coverage for the Public Employees' Benefits Board (PEBB) or the School Employees' Benefits Board (SEBB), they must also offer plans on the Exchange in the same counties it serves for PEBB or SEBB. If a consumer requests it, all insurers that sell plans on the Exchange are required to offer their health plans off the Exchange.

Standardized health plans, called Cascade Care standard plans, and public option plans, called Cascade Select plans, were offered on the Exchange for the first time in 2021. For PY 2026, there are 46 standard plans and 12 public option plans, with at least four public option plans in 38 of the 39 counties. There are no public option plans available in San Juan County. Each county will have between three and 43 plans available.

The following insurers will sell health plans on the Exchange. Companies that will sell both on and off the Exchange are noted with an asterisk (*).

- Coordinated Care Corporation
- Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of the Northwest*
- Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of Washington*
- LifeWise Health Plan of Washington

These companies offer coverage only off the Exchange:

Coverage by county

The tables below list the insurers and numbers of plans available in each county in each plan tier, both on and off the Exchange.

Health plan tiers are gold, silver, bronze or catastrophic, and vary depending on the coverage. Gold plans pay for a greater share of health care costs than silver plans do. Silver plans pay for more than bronze and catastrophic plans offer very limited coverage.
