8:10-48 a.m. to from Jennifer M. Cross-Euteneier Attorney's office asking why they had not received a response for the OIC to their IFCA notice. I explained that we do not send a response. I log the notices into the tracking log and file in our cabinet. I checked to see if they mailed the IFCA notice to the Travelers and was told they did not.

9/18/2012 - OIC was notified that this case went to trial resulting in the judge issuing an order in favor of the insured.

Angus Walker, Patrick Reilly et al , King County Cause No.: 16-2-30032-4. Tokio Marine acknowledged coverage and a duty to defend. The Lawsuit was against the members of a dissolved corporation. The members became general partners and, with that, came joint and several liability. The latter prevented any attorney from representing multiple partners. Yet Tokio Marine is claiming Mr. Reilly could have shared counsel and by not doing so, rejected a defense. Tokio Marine failed to timely respond to communications concerning the defense and reimbursement."	x
